LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

13. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting or controlling and regulating the installation, construction, or use of domestic refrigerator plants in which any poisonous refrigerant is used, and swimming-pools or tanks for public use.

14. To amend the said Act to provide that where one side only of any street has already been paved and the cost thereof assessed as a local improvement against the property benefited on both sides of such street, or has been paid out of general funds of the city, the Council may, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, on the recommendations of the City Engineer and City Comptroller, and without adopting the formalities required by this Act or any by-law, carry out similar work as a local improvement on the opposite side of such street, and may assess the cost thereof on the property benefited thereby on both sides of any such street.

15. To amend the said Act to provide for the continuous auditing of all accounts affecting the city.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 8th day of December, 1930.

J. B. WILLIAMS,
Solicitor for the Applicant the City of Vancouver.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 12112.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Bartram Properties, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 2nd day of December, 1930.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 1280 Homer Street, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and any estate, right, title, or interest therein situate within the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada, and all kinds of personal property, and to deal with and turn the same to account as the Company may deem expedient:

(b.) To build, remodel, or rebuild in whole or in part any buildings on the said lands, with or without fixtures, plant, machinery, and other personal chattels, and to alter, repair, and maintain the same, and to lease or rent the said lands, buildings, fixtures, and chattels or any part or parts thereof, and generally to deal with the said property in any way that shall be deemed to be to the Company's advantage:

(c.) To sell, either for cash or for deferred payments, exchange, lease, and otherwise deal with its lands, rights, or other property or effects or any part thereof or its undertaking or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold the same or otherwise dispose of such shares and debentures as may be deemed most expedient:

(d.) To lend money on the security of, or purchase, or invest in contracts constituting a first charge on land mortgages, and hypothecs upon freehold or leasehold real estate or other removable property:

(e.) To sell any mortgages, hypothecs, or other security or securities either in whole or in part, and to carry out any such sale by assignment or otherwise covering the whole or undivided interest therein on such terms and conditions as the directors may deem advisable.

None of such subclauses or objects therein specified or powers thereby conferred shall be deemed to be subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause within the Dominion of Canada, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

The Company has excluded from its memorandum of association clause (u) of subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act."

(2.) To invest all moneys raised by sale of the shares or debentures of the Company in any stocks, bonds, debentures, shares, scrip, or securities issued by any Government or authority, or any corporation, trust, or company, wheresoever incorporated or constituted, but no investment involving any unlimited liability shall be made by the Company:

(3.) To buy, sell, deal and trade in commodities of every kind and nature, including (but without affecting the generality of the foregoing) grain, corn, cotton, rubber, and all metals:

(4.) To take, make, execute, or enter into, commence, carry on, prosecute, and defend all steps, contracts, agreements, negotiations, legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements, and schemes, and to do all other acts, matters, and things which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection of the Company as holders of or interested in any such investments, securities, and commodities as aforesaid:

(5.) To employ experts and agents to investigate and examine into the conditions, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally any assets, property, or rights:

(6.) To employ investment experts and statisticians, and to invest the funds of the Company upon the advice of such experts:

(7.) To carry on business as brokers, financiers, and investment agents, and to carry on and execute all kinds of financial operations which may be lawfully undertaken and carried out by capitalists, brokers, financiers, or concessionaires:

(8.) To receive money for transmission to any part of the world in connection with transactions in which the Company is authorized to engage:

(9.) To make donations, whether outright or by way of annuity, to any persons or corporations, whether directors or shareholders or otherwise, and either in cash or other assets as the Company may think, directly or indirectly, expedient:

(10.) To allot, as fully or partly paid up, the shares, bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services or other valuable consideration:

(11.) To promote, form, organize, and register and to aid or assist in the promotion of any other company or companies, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing for the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by subscribing for shares therein, or lending money there-to upon any form of security; to remunerate in cash or shares or otherwise the promoters or any person assisting in the promotion of this Company or of any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the promotion, organization, registration, or establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the shares or capital, including brokerage for placing or guaranteeing the placing of the securities of this or any other company:

(12.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money, or any other debt or any contract or indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, including its uncalled capital; and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, bonds, debentures, mortgages, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligation or security of the Company by means of trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls, and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(13.) Upon sale or other disposition of all or any of the assets of the Company, to reinvest the capital arising therefrom in any property or rights which the Company is authorized to acquire:

(14.) To carry on any or all of the business of the Company through agents and traders, and to permit all securities or commodities to the Company to be held by such traders in trust for the Company, and to enter into all necessary contracts with such agents and traders:

(15.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

To build, erect, purchase, lease, rent, or otherwise acquire, and to furnish, outfit, and equip, and to operate, conduct, and manage hotels, restaurants, cafés, refreshment-rooms, tea-rooms, pleasure-resorts, lunch-counters, and tobacco stores and stands, cold-storage plants, manufacturers of aerated and mineral waters and other drinks, provision depots, and to carry on the business of caterers, importers, and brokers of food, live or dead stock, and to carry on all businesses necessary to be carried on in connection with the operation, conduct, and management of the above or any other business or businesses which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere:

(c.) To carry on the business of manufacturers, importers, exporters, refiners, and repackers and dealers in all kinds of confectionery, meats, canned goods, crackers, jams, jellies, marmalade, syrups, essences, spices, baking-powders, pickles, and all kinds of fresh and preserved fruits, berries, and vegetables:

(d.) To acquire, maintain, establish, and carry on business as bakers, biscuit-manufacturers, dealers in milk, butter, and other dairy produce, grocers, poulterers, greengrocers, dairymen, farmers, and ice merchants, and carry on business as wholesale or retail, general or departmental storekeepers:

(e.) To buy, sell, manufacture, import, export, and deal in, either as wholesale or retail, all kinds of boxes, cans, dishes, glass and earthenware jars, paper bags, wrapping-papers, twine, and all substances, apparatus, and things capable of being used in any of the branches of the Company's business:

(f.) To carry on business, both wholesale and retail, as meat packers and canners, cattle-dealers, farmers, ranchers, butchers, purveyors of fish, meats, and provisions, dealers in live stock, dairy and agricultural products, and to operate and conduct a commission and general mercantile business:

(g.) To acquire, register, and use any patents, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks, or privileges of a like nature, and to use or dispose of the same as the Company may see fit:

(h.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(i.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, lands, premises, or hereditaments or any interest therein, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient or that may be deemed necessary for the purpose of this business; and to sell, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company, or to amalgamate with any existing company:

(k.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of the Company:

(l.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest or for any other purpose to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate redeemable or perpetual debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of lading, bills of exchange, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(m.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and to take as security for the repayment of any loan real or personal property of any kind or description:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof upon such terms and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to distribute any or all of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(o.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(p.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except when the sanction, if any, for the time being required by law:

(q.) None of the objects herein specified or any of the powers hereby given shall be used or exercised, or shall any business whatsoever be carried on in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, or in the neighbourhood thereof, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained.

(11.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, and mining lands, oil claims, leases, prospects, and lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein, and to carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining and oil company in all or any of its branches:

(12.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sand, gravel, granite, sandstone or limestone, or other building substances or materials, and to carry on the business of quarry-owners and wholesale and retail dealers in any and all kinds of building materials:

(13.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business; to carry on the business of hotel and inn keepers.

(14.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(15.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(16.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend logging-railways, tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(17.) To manufacture, buy, sell, export, import, and generally deal in ropes, cables, windlasses, tackle, and ship-building supplies generally:

(18.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(19.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(20.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make grants of land to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, religious, general, or useful objects:

(21.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(22.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(23.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(24.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(25.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(26.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company; to lend money to the shareholders of the Company or any one or more of them with or without security:

(27.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(28.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(29.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(30.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(31.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(32.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(33.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(34.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(35.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(36.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(37.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(38.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclauses of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.
